From My Heart...

Once there was a man named Jim who let his dog out to do its business late one night. He watched some TV and then remembered to let the dog back in. When he opened the door, he was shocked at what he saw! In his dog's mouth was his neighbor's cat, dead! "Bad dog! BAD DOG!" said the panicked man.

He took the cat away and looked at it. He couldn't bring himself to tell his neighbor what happened, so he decided to clean it up and leave it on the neighbor's porch. He took the cat into the bathroom and washed off all the blood and dirt. It took him forever. He had to wash it four times to get it all cleaned. He brushed its beautiful white fur as he blow-dried it and put its collar back on. Since it was so dark, he snuck into the neighbor's yard and laid the cat down on the porch, in front of the door.

The next day, he saw his neighbor. "Hi," the neighbor said. "Hi," replied Jim, nervously. His neighbor said, "Something weird happened last night." "Oh yeah? What's that?" asked Jim, sweating now. "Well, my cat died yesterday, and we buried him, and this morning he was lying on my front porch!"

The devil is a master at getting us to dig up things that have already been buried. Don't be guilty of doing that. When you sin, and you ask forgiveness, that sin has been buried. Don't be guilty of trying to dig it up and remember it. If you don't believe it, look up 1 John 1:9... I'm not making this up!!!

The new year of 2018 gives us new opportunities to bury the past and start fresh! I sure hope you'll take advantage of that. What you did or didn't do for God last year is really irrelevant now. The important question before us today is, "What will we do for Jesus now?"
