From My Heart...

We have celebrated "love" and "family" this month and it has been great. We close out February with our "Love One Another Banquet" in the Grand Hall. The food is being catered, but I took the liberty of having some extra made because I know some of you are like me...procrastinators!

True love is far more than the present society makes it out to be. The word "love" in our day has become a 4 letter word that is used for a variety of things and actions. In fact, truthfully, it more about "lust" than love today!

Love is being "gut level" honest with someone. You don't show love by lying to people to make them feel better. True love can have some hard repercussions.

More than half a century ago, Amy Carmichael wrote these words...

Hast thou no wound?

No wound? No scar?

*Yet, as the Master shall the servant be,
And pierced are the feet that follow Me;*

But thine are whole:

Can he have followed far

Who has no wound nor scar?

A teacher once said, "You can recognize a leader by his (or her) limp." His point: those most effective in ministry are most often those who have been wounded at some time in their lives. Sometimes these wounds come from others, sometimes they're the result of our own irrational decisions. But the best Christians are the best Christians because they are survivors. In fact, they're more than survivors. They're overcomers.

Thank you for being an upbeat, positive, Jesus loving, sin hating, sensitive, loving overcoming child of God! I'm so looking forward to tonight and fellowshiping with you.

MEN...get ready! We've been praying for months...and now it's this FRIDAY!!! Get your ticket today!
