From My Heart...

Marriage Involves A Responsibility – Genesis says, that a man is to "leave" his parents and "cleave" to his wife. This is a two step process that many couples would do well to consider today...

1. To leave means to place every other relationship at a lower priority than the marriage relationship.

Excluding, of course, one's relationship with God. Your husband or wife is to be more than just a spouse. They are to literally be your best friend - Mal. 2:14. Leaving means that every activity outside of the marriage relationship must take a backseat. This includes things like businesses, hobbies, friends, careers, sports, even church work. Outside of one's relationship with God, there is no other relationship as important as the one you have with your spouse!

2. To cleave means to "adhere to, to stick to, to be bound together by some strong bond."

Cleaving isn't an instant thing. Rather, it is a lifelong pursuit. It begins at the marriage altar and continues to the deathbed. It speaks of total and absolute commitment. This is a word that is lacking in our modern society, especially when it comes to arena of marriage. The modern mind set says, "Well, we'll try it for a while and if it doesn't work, then I'll just find me a new one."

That is a far cry from what God intended in the beginning! You see, "cleaving" is not a passive endeavor. In other words, it doesn't just happen, it comes about as the result of effort. The New Testament word for cleave means, "to stick like glue, to be welded together so that the two cannot be separated without serious damage to both." If we really believe that 2 become 1 flesh when they are married, then we would also believe that anything that tore that apart was a serious matter.

Every married couple needs to realize that they have been made one. You are not really a couple, you are a single unit. Declared by God in Heaven to be joined together until death rips you apart. If we really lived with this assurance, it would transform our homes, our churches and our nation! We would spare no expense or effort to save a member of our own body, we should do everything in our power to safeguard our marriages.

Have a wonderful Mother's Day Celebration today...and thanks for being in the Lord's House on this special day!

Bro. Charles
