From My Heart...

Have you ever justified doing something wrong because someone else did it too? Maybe it was OK to drink a little too much because your friend did. Maybe you know lots of people who cheat on tests, so what's the big deal if you do? Maybe others have a habit, so if you do the same thing it's no big deal.

The idea of "following the crowd" has been around for a while. In Galatians 2, Peter cared about what some of the prominent Jewish leaders thought of him so he distanced himself from the non-Jewish Christians, called Gentiles. As a consequence, other Jewish men followed Peter's example and stopped associating with the Gentiles. Peter's actions were sinful, and his behavior caused others to stumble. Whether we want to admit it or not, our bad actions can influence others to follow us into sin.

Eph 5:1-2 says, "Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children; And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savor."

Take some time to examine why you do what you do. We are facing some tremendous choices in our nation right now. I personally believe we are facing the most important election possibly since the days of George Washington! I challenge you to pray about the direction you choose to go on Election Day. Early voting is underway. If you need transportation to go vote, call the Church Office and we will arrange that for you.

I'm not telling you who to vote for...but I am asking one simple, yet profound question. When you walk out of the Polling Booth, will Christ be happy with what you have done? You decide!

Then, get excited about this week! HARVEST WEEKEND. Just as an election can change the attitude and direction of a country, I believe the HARVEST WEEKEND can literally change our church. Can you imagine what God could do if for one week we prayed and witnessed to the people we come in contact with? Let's try it and see!

HARVEST WEEKEND NOVEMBER 5-6

We're pulling out "all the stops" to make this a great weekend. We're planning the largest Fall Festival in the history of Woodland Hills. Food, games, music, door prizes and lots more! One blessed family will receive a $500 gift card. You must register on Saturday night and be present Sunday morning to win. You cannot be a member of Woodland Hills...this is to reach people who are not already members. So start inviting all your friends and prospects to be a part of that.

Dr. Don Whitt, Evangelist from Milan, Tennessee will be our guest Sunday morning. It's one great service to see many, many people come to know Jesus Christ as their Savior and Lord.
