From My Heart...

Have you ever wondered if Satan were to write his beatitudes, what they would look like? Someone suggested they would probably go something like this:

Blessed are those who are too tired, too busy, too distracted to spend an hour two or three times a week with their fellow Christians -- they are my best workers.

Blessed are those Christians who wait to be asked and expect to be thanked -- I can use them.

Blessed are the touchy who stop going to church -- they are my missionaries.

Blessed are the trouble makers -- they shall be called my children.

Blessed are the complainers -- I'm all ears to them.

Blessed are those who are bored with the minister's mannerisms and mistakes -- for they get nothing out of his sermons.

Blessed is the church member who expects to be invited to his own church -- for he is a part of the problem instead of the solution.

Blessed are those who gossip -- for they shall cause strife and divisions that please me.

Blessed are those who are easily offended -- for they will soon get angry and quit.

Blessed are those who do not give their offering to carry on God's work for they are my helpers.

Blessed is he who professes to love God but hates his brother and sister for he shall be with me forever.

Blessed are you who, when you read this, think it is about other people and not yourself -- I've got you too!

Preparing People For The Coming Lord,
Bro. Charles

HOW GOD HAS USED CR IN MY LIFE

I'll admit, when I first heard about CR, I made a snap judgment that it was only for those with drug and alcohol addictions. I was convinced I didn't need this program because I don't struggle with either of those. Boy, was I wrong! Not only is God using this wonderful program to bring me into a deeper relationship with Him, He is also using it to give me freedom from the past and help me overcome grief from circumstances beyond my control. This program really is for everyone, from any background, at any point in your life. Just give it a chance - you never know how God will work in your life through this program. -Misty
