From My Heart...

Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbor: for we are members one of another. Ephesians 4:25

When I was in college, the beginning of every semester, professor would say, "On such-and-such a date, your term paper will be due." I knew that, I understood that, I had great intentions of getting it done in a timely manner.

But it is easy to get sidetracked, and when the due date is tomorrow, you suddenly realize that your paper is not ready. You go to the teacher's office and say, "Prof, you wouldn't believe what happened to me. My Aunt Ethel took ill, the library lost the one reference book I most needed, and the dog ate the final draft of my paper right after I pulled it out of the typewriter." You say anything but the truth, hoping the professor will be merciful.

Very few students walk into the professor's office and say, "You made an assignment several months ago. It was fair, and I understood it clearly. Unfortunately, I played too many video games, watched too many late night movies, went to eat with all the gang. I was undisciplined, and I procrastinated. Now I don't have the assignment done. I make no excuses; it was my fault. Do whatever you think is right."

Why don't people operate that way? Because it is painful to own up to the truth about our behavior. It takes courage.

We've seen some firsthand courage this past week at First Baptist Church, Sutherland Springs. That strength comes by prayer through the power of the Holy Spirit. May we continue to pray for our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Whatever you do, DO NOT MISS the Agape Feast next Sunday night, November 19. We will be meeting at the Hallsville High School Cafeteria. There will be plenty of room to fellowship. Our children will be singing, so you know it's going to be a blessing. Invite neighbors, family, and friends to join us for a great time of Thanksgiving and fellowship! If you need a ride, don't drive after dark etc. PLEASE call us...we want everyone to be there! You are important to the Kingdom of God.
