From My Heart...

Anything that God does, Satan always counterfeits it. The gospel of Matthew beautifully lists the Beatitudes. Satan also has a set of Beatitudes. I copied this from another source...They would probably go something like this:

- Blessed are those who are too tired, busy, and distracted to spend an hour, two or three times a week, with their fellow Christians -- they are my best workers.
- Blessed are those Christians who wait to be asked and expect to be thanked -- I can use them.
- Blessed are the touchy who stop attending church -- they are my missionaries.
- Blessed are the trouble makers -- they shall be called my children.
- Blessed are the complainers -- I'm all ears to them.
- Blessed are those who are bored with the minister's mannerisms and mistakes -- for they get nothing out of his sermons.
- Blessed is the church member who expects to be invited to his own church -- for he is a part of the problem instead of the solution.
- Blessed are those who gossip -- for they shall cause strife and divisions that please me.
- Blessed are those who are easily offended -- for they will soon get angry and quit.
- Blessed are those who do not give their offering to carry on God's work, for they are my helpers.
- Blessed is he who professes to love God but hates his brother and sister, for he shall be with me forever.
- Blessed are you who, when you read this, think it is about other people and not yourself -- I've got you too!

What a joy to pastor this great church. You are a blessing, and you're a hope and encouragement to many around us. You're living proof that you don't have to be dead and ritualistic to worship God! Many think the church has no place in society today...I don't think they've read the rest of the Book, or if they have read it, they don't believe it. What a blessing to get to serve with you now and get to spend eternity in heaven with you also!
