From My Heart....

March is almost gone, and in a month, we will be celebrating Easter. Please don't miss Easter and what it means. Thomas was the first disciple to miss Easter service in the upper room that night. The disciples were meeting, and Jesus appeared. The only two who were missing were Judas and Thomas.

Years ago, when Wellington, the British general, was engaged in a battle with Napoleon at Waterloo, the English people were watching for some signal of the battle. Of course, they had no telephone or telegraph. But they waited in the harbor in Great Britain for a ship to come. The ship came into the harbor, and they saw the man take the semaphore and he began to flash out a message. And the message came letter by letter. The first word was 'Wellington'. And they all said, 'It's going to be a message about Wellington.' And the next word was the word 'defeated.' And the hearts of the people of Great Britain sank. They said, 'Wellington has been defeated.'

And at that very moment, a thick fog enshrouded the harbor so that they could no longer send a message. And everyone had given up hope. Wellington has been defeated. The British crown is at stake. And their hearts were gloomy and dark.

The fog gradually began to lift, and they started sending a signal again: 'Wellington defeated the enemy at Waterloo.' And all of Britain shouted for joy. It was not a message that said Wellington was defeated; it said, 'Wellington defeated the enemy.'

Thomas saw Jesus die on the cross. Jesus said, "It is finished." He bowed His head and gave up the ghost, and the demons of hell cried out in glee, and everyone said, "Jesus defeated."

For three days and three nights, darkness enshrouded the world and clouded the hearts of those disciples. Jesus had died; Jesus had been crucified.

But, on the third day, can you just see the Lord Jesus Christ as He calmly arises? Can you see His eyes as they open in that tomb? Can you see Him take the napkin, carefully fold it, and lay it where His head was? And then, with all the power that was within Him, Jesus Christ came out of that grave, dragging hell and death behind His victorious chariot.

It wasn't "Jesus defeated," it was "Jesus defeated the enemy on Calvary, and He lives forevermore!"

Preparing People For The Coming Lord,
Bro. Charles

Scripture of the Month MARCH

"Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers."
Ephesians 4:29
