SPEAKER
Ergun Caner

Few men are as provocative as Dr. Ergun Caner, and even fewer have smiled all the way through it. Born in Stockholm, Sweden in 1966, Caner was raised a devout Sunni Muslim by his Turkish father who came to America to build Mosques.

As the oldest of the three sons, Ergun was led to Christ by a persistent High School friend. Caner has been preaching and teaching almost since that day some thirty-five years ago.

He is currently the Dean of the Graduate School of Theology at the Arlington Baptist University in Arlington, Texas.

Over the last twenty-five years, Caner has been a Seminary and College President, Professor of Evidential Apologetics, Speaker and Author.

Guest
WORSHIP LEADER
John Paul Allen

From deep East Texas, to the mountains of Brazil, this homeschooled, third-world city, country boy has seen just a little of the world. His musical influence is a cross between the Latino and folk of Brazil with the Gospel and Southern Rock of America. He released his first solo EP in July of 2020 entitled "Life Isn't Fair". It made #36 on the iTunes Christian/Gospel chart. He is currently the principal of Woodland Hills Christian Academy. "One of my main life verses is Isaiah 7:9b, which says, "If you do not stand firm in your faith, you will not stand at all." What that says to me is that whatever we do or accomplish in this life, if you aren't rooted in Jesus Christ than it is ultimately wasted time.
