From My Heart...

When I visited the Gulf Coast of Florida, I got to see a couple of glorious earth turns. The sky was ablaze with color and the sun disappeared on the horizon. You say, "Excuse me, Bro. Charles, that's called a sunset." Hey, wait a minute. Are you from the 14th century or something? The sun doesn't set; it doesn't move! The earth moves! So that would be an earth turn, right? And we say the sun sets.

2 Timothy 3:16 "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." Now, what this is really saying is the Bible is the sun; God's unchanging, unmoving truth. Everything else has to revolve around what God's Word says. God's Word on any subject is the final word.

I often get asked why we have an annual Bible Conference. This is the primary reason. We need to be reminded that everything needs to rotate around the inerrant Word of God!

This passage is written in a time when Paul is predicting that moral values will be in total confusion, when wrong's going to seem right, when what's right will seem wrong. Doesn't that sound familiar? It's a time when imposters and false ideas will be deceiving many people. And so God's instructions to Timothy are, "You continue in what you've learned and become convinced of what you've learned from infancy - the Holy Scriptures."

In other words, you've got to stay where you are. Don't let anything make you compromise on what God's Word says. It's unsettling to see that only about a fourth of America's Christians are sure there's absolute truth. We're shaky on this authority issue; especially when it comes to areas that cramp our style or require us to change or go against what our group or our culture says is true today. We put more weight on what is politically correct or culturally correct than what is biblically correct.

God's Word is the final word on creation, on divorce, on re-marriage, on sexuality, whether it's hetero or homosexuality, on what it means to be a woman; what it means to be a man, on justice, on wealth, on sex, on the value of an unborn life. Enough said!!!

I pray that you will make every effort to be at every service of Focus 2016. It will be over before you know it!

HOW GOD HAS USED CR IN MY LIFE

The one thing we all need is to know that someone cares and to be loved. Celebrate Recovery has helped me to open my heart and has given me freedom from myself to love others that may seem different, think different, or that may even look different. It's a place where Faith, Hope, and the Love of Jesus are freely given. I invite you to come and see! ~Jan Humphrey
