FROM MY HEART...

When I visited the Gulf Coast of Florida, I got to see a couple of glorious earth turns. The sky was ablaze with color and the sun disappeared on the horizon. You say, "Excuse me, Bro. Charles, that's called a sunset." Hey, wait a minute. Are you from the 14th century or something? The sun doesn't set; it doesn't move! The earth moves! So that would be an earth turn, right? And we say the sun sets.

2 Timothy 3:16. It says this: "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." Now, what this is really saying is the Bible is the sun; God's unchanging, unmoving truth. Everything else has to revolve around what God's Word says. God's Word on any subject is the final word.

I often get asked why we have an annual Bible Conference. There are many reasonings, but a primary one is We need to be reminded that everything needs to rotate around the inerrant Word of God!

This passage is written in a time when Paul is predicting that moral values will be in total confusion, when wrong's going to seem right, when what's right will seem wrong. Doesn't that sound familiar? It's a time when imposters and false ideas will be deceiving many people. And so God's instructions to Timothy are, "You continue in what you've learned and become convinced of what you've learned from infancy - the Holy Scriptures."

In other words, you've got to stay where you are. Don't let anything make you compromise on what God's Word says. It's unsettling to see that only about a fourth of America's Christians are sure there's absolute truth. We're shaky on this authority issue; especially when it comes to areas that cramp our style or require us to change or go against what our group or our culture says is true today. We put more weight on what is politically correct or culturally correct than what is biblically correct.

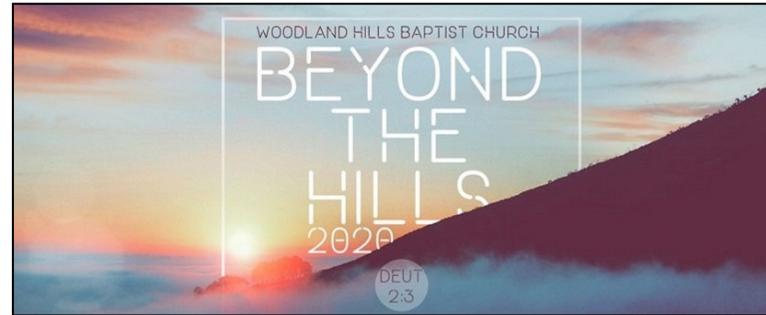

God's Word is the final word on creation, on divorce, on re-marriage, on sexuality, on what it means to be a woman; on what it means to be a man, on justice, on wealth, and on the value of an unborn life.

I know I say this every year, but I think this was the best FOCUS we've had. God definitely spoke! I pray that you were blessed during FOCUS 2021. I pray we will not just say it was good, but take what we have heard and become doers of the Word!

Preparing People For The Coming Lord,
Bro. Charles
