From My Heart...

Life is too short to be miserable. How sad that so many Christians forget who they are in Christ and live miserable lives. It is not difficult to be miserable. In fact, here are some specific suggestions on how to be perfectly miserable.

- Think about yourself.
- Talk about yourself.
- Use "I" as often as possible.
- Mirror yourself continually in the opinion of others.
- Listen greedily to what people say about you.
- Expect to be appreciated.
- Be suspicious.
- Be jealous and envious.
- Be sensitive to slights.
- Never forgive a criticism.
- Trust no one but yourself.
- Insist on consideration and respect.
- Demand agreement with your own views on everything.
- Sulk if people are not grateful to you for favors shown them.
- Never forget a service you may have rendered.
- Shirk your duties if you can.
- Do as little as possible for others.
- Love yourself supremely.
- Be selfish.

Misery is a choice you make. Where do you find true happiness?

• Not in unbelief - Voltaire was an infidel of the most pronounced type.

He wrote: "I wish I had never been born."

• Not in pleasure - Lord Byron lived a life of pleasure, if anyone did. He wrote:

"The worm, the canker and the grief are mine alone."

• Not in money - Jay Gould, the American millionaire, had plenty of that. When dying, he said: "I suppose I am the most miserable man on earth."

• Not in possession or fame - Lord Beaconsfield enjoyed more than his share of both. He wrote: "Youth is a mistake, manhood a struggle, old age a regret."

• Not in military glory - Alexander the Great conquered the known world of his day. Having done so, he wept in his tent, because, as he said, "There are no more worlds to conquer."

Happiness is always the by-product of loving and obeying Jesus Christ. Only in Christ is there true happiness. Psalm 16:11 says, "...in your presence is fullness of joy; at your right hand are pleasures."

Welcome
Dr. Ergun
Caner

Dr. Ergun Caner was born November 3, 1966. Dr. Caner has served as President of Brewton-Parker College in Mount Vernon, Georgia, Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs at Arlington Baptist College and, Dean of the Liberty Baptist Theological Seminary and Graduate School of Liberty University. He presently lives in Aledo, Texas. He is a much sought after preacher and is noted for being forthright and speaking the truth. We are blessed to have him here at Woodland Hills today.

For Your Information

2016 CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS

They are ready and can be picked up in the Connection Center.

HOW GOD HAS USED CR IN MY LIFE

One year ago God led me to Celebrate Recovery, and it became clear real fast, the Holy Ghost had a plan to work on me some more! He immediately put me in a step study class and started showing me where I needed help and supplied me with that help, an accountability partner that had almost the same problems as me. In Luke 8:17 we find "For nothing is hidden that will not become evident, nor anything secret that will not be known and come to light." Since I brought all my shame to light, I feel 60 lbs. lighter. Try it, you'll like it! ~Mark Humphrey

FOCUS '16 TAPES & DVD'S

There is an order form at the Connection Center for you to fill out. You can pay when you order or we can bill you when we send them. All income from CD's and DVD's go to help pay for the Bible Conference.

THANK YOU

To all those who prayed, worked, came and participated in FOCUS '16...THANKS! It was the best Bible Conference we've had!!!
