From My Heart...

Let me share with you a scripture that we studied on Wednesday night and how it greatly applies to our lives.

1 Peter 2:2-3 "Like newborn infants, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up into salvation— ³if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good."

Peter tells us that as newborn babies crave milk, so born-again believers should crave (long for) pure spiritual milk that will nourish them and help them grow to maturity. The word "spiritual milk" is referring to the Word of God, which provides spiritual life to those who partake of it. Thus, like milk, it is the essential nourishment for babies, it sustains life and gives grow, the Word of God is essential to spiritual growth and maturity. The purity of God's Word means that there is no imperfection, no flaws, and that it will not deceive or lead people astray, in other words you can count on it to build your life upon.

Peter is stating that believers should always crave more and more of God's Word in the same way that a baby eagerly desires milk. I remember after Mason and Maddox were born when it came time that they were hungry, they would get hysterical. They would be screaming at the top of their lungs, and they would not stop until they got their bottle. It would take us only a matter of minutes to get the bottle ready, but those few minutes felt like an eternity as we listened to those shrill screams. They longed for the bottles, and they would not be quiet, or calm down until they were fed.

I wonder what it would be like today, if that was an honest picture of how deeply we longed for the Word of God. I believe if we had such a desire we would see the Lord working greatly in our lives.

One characteristic all children share is that they eagerly want to grow up—to be like big brother or sister or like their parents. The other morning Maddox woke up and he came in and said "Daddy, I think I grew last night, my leg is sore. Can you measure to see if I am a taller?" They constantly talk about getting bigger and what they are going to do.

How sad it is that some Christians never grow up.

You'll notice verse 3 says "if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good." Once we get a glimpse of how good the Lord is we will not be satisfied by the trinkets the world has to offer. The more we taste God's goodness, the more tasteless other worldly options will become.

You see our growth, and our effectiveness comes directly from the Lord, let us not be satisfied or complacent, but let us to reach out always for more! We have tasted that the Lord is Good, praise the Lord let us keep pushing on for more and more and more!
