

Easter Code Book

They are located in the Foyer. It is a daily devotional that leads up to Easter Sunday. Because of weather, we are already late. But that doesn't mean we can't hustle and get them in our neighbors and friends hands this week. Please take one for your family and then as many as you will hand out to neighbors, friends, family, and co-workers. They won't do anybody any good sitting at the church!

From My Heart...

We've certainly had plenty of "home alone" time this week. I hope you've spend some of it with the Lord, praying for a real move of God in our church. We can't sit idly by as time moves on until we are in eternal bliss. Revival is tarrying and people are slipping into hell-fire by the moment! Do you feel concern for these people or is your heart passionless, tearless, prayerless. Do you have tears for the lost? It could be that revival taries for the simple fact that we do not have tears.

There is so much dry-eyed Christianity. Machinery, methods, models and marketing characterize the modern day Church. Never in the history of the Church have we been so filled with resources yet lacking so much! By our actions we are saying what God has begun in the Spirit we can perfect in the flesh. We are Laodicean! We are rich, increased with goods, and we have need of nothing. We want to have revival man's way, not God's way. We know nothing of revival, nothing of God's power, nothing of God's travail, nothing of God's sorrow over a lost and damned world.

A Laodicean church is dry-eyed, a Laodicean church never loses sleep, shuns pain, suffering and anything that disturbs its status-quo. The Laodicean church cannot share God's heart, for it is so far removed from God and His economy.

The old timers used language that is unheard of today...such as: Soul-Travail, Mourning, Pleading, Praying-Through, Weeping, Godly Sorrow, Burdens. With dry-eyes we attempt great things for God and then tell Him about it afterwards.

For the most part, we have left God out of Church, though we do at times remind Him of things and ask for the occasional blessing, yet overall God is outside the Church.

By the way many Christian's live in our day we are saying that "God is the same yesterday, and forever," but not today! Could God disturb our status-quo and give us brimming and bursting eyes over the fact of the lostness of men and the fact of their spending a eternity without God.

Please pray with me this week. We begin EVANGELISIM INITIATIVE with a special training and information time next Sunday at 5:00 PM in the Chapel at the Loop Campus. Before you begin to give excuses, I know all that already. I know about the Pandemic, I know about the snow storm, I know about the economics. I also know people need Jesus...and if we don't prepare ourselves to witness, they will end up lost for all eternity. Please plan to join us next Sunday night!

Scripture of the Month

FEBRUARY

"For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart." Hebrews 4:12
