FROM MY HEART...

If I asked the question, "Where's Waldo?" you might recall those popular children's picture books from the 1980s. Or at least some of us older folks would! That little guy in the red-and-white-striped shirt and hat loved to hide in the pages amid a busy blur of images that made it nearly impossible to find him.

I am so thankful that finding Jesus is a lot easier than finding Waldo. In fact, Jesus doesn't have to find you...He knows exactly where you are. Jesus doesn't play hide-and-seek. He says, "Behold, I stand at the door and knock" (Rev. 3:20). You can find Him at the door of your heart—the core of your existence—waiting to come in. He doesn't just want to meet you at church, or to be kept at bay on the outer edges of your life. He longs to be in the center of your dreams, deliberations, and desires. He wants a real relationship with the real you.

And as wonderful as that is, I need to warn you up front, it may be a little unsettling. Your heart is no doubt harboring a few things that He will want to deal with. But there is nothing that is more valuable than intimacy with Him. It has been amazing to see God working in the lives of those around us. Many, many things in our lives have been dealt with...we've brought them to the altar and left them there. Now let's rise up and walk in "newness of life."

Welcome Jesus in and He will clear out the clutter until the air is fragrant and fresh with the purity, power, and pleasure of His presence. As we enter into the month of March and get ready for Resurrection Sunday, please be sensitive to those all around us who are seeking peace, healing, direction, encourage and salvation. God has blessed us by saving us and the Holy Spirit indwelling in us. Because we have become the salt of the earth, we must also be the light of the world. Let your light shine brightly!
