From My Heart...

I heard a story about a pastor who took his Labrador Retriever duck hunting. When he shot the duck down the lab walked on water and retrieved it. He couldn't believe it. So, he shot another one down and the same thing happened. He knew he could not go into town and tell it to anyone or else they would think he was lying. But he thought of one of his negative deacons. He knew if he saw it and told it, the people would believe him.

So he takes his deacon duck hunting, shoots a duck down, and the dog walked on the water and retrieved it. The deacon didn't say anything. So the preacher shot another one down and the same thing happened. The preacher said, "Didn't you see anything unusual about this dog?" The deacon said, "Yeah, he can't swim can he!"

We need some affirmative, enthusiastic deacons around here. If we have a negative spirit as leaders of the church, the rest of the church will be negative, too.

I'm so thankful this morning that we are coming to ordain and install five men who fit the description of a true deacons! They have not said if you ordain us we will work and serve. They have been and are already working and serving for the glory of the Lord. They have a sweet, compassionate spirit and a love for the Lord Jesus.

These men, added to our present deacons, will continue to lead us in ministry in the days ahead. As the church continues to grow, the need to add men of this caliber continues to be a priority.

Please pray for these men and their wives!

Bro. Charles
