From My Heart...

In John 12:26, Jesus said, "If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honor."

The middle of this verse caught my attention... "where I am, Jesus said, there shall my servant be also."

I realized this week that most of the time I'm asking Jesus to be where I am. I want Him to walk with me, talk with me and help me through life. Here, he's asking me to be where he is ... that is, to go where he goes.

Where does Jesus go? We learn from the gospels that he goes to the lonely, the hurt, and the oppressed. He's with those struggling with defeat and yearning for victory. He's with those who have nowhere else to turn. And that's where he wants us to be.

We are "where He is" when we encourage the discouraged. We go where He goes when we reach out to the disenchanted and the disenfranchised, when we express love, mercy and compassion to others. There are so many people today who are hurting. They need our encouragement. There are untold numbers who are lonely because of all the restrictions from Covid. Pick up the phone and call someone today or make a visit.

We are "where He is" when we're serving in the local church ministries. Our motto at Woodland Hills is "preparing people for the coming Christ." Christ is coming again, and I believe soon. There is so much work and ministry that must be done to prepare all ages. Have you thought about serving the Lord as a greeter, gold cart driver, bus driver, bus monitor, children's worker, youth worker, choir or music area, safety team, nursing home service, and I could go on and on. I believe we would find Jesus at each one of these...continuing to build the Kingdom of God.

Jesus reminded us, "I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me." (Matthew 25:40) He is waiting to meet you and I today, so that we can go and be a blessing to someone else. Can He count on us? Let's look for opportunities to express his love and to reveal his grace.

Preparing People For The Coming Lord,
Bro. Charles
