From My Heart...

"Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels. And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hands of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it." Jeremiah 18:3, 4.

The pottery was probably outside the walls of the city, where suitable clay could be found for making jars and bowls and other kinds of earthenware. As the prophet entered the establishment, he found the potter making a vessel upon the wheels.

As Jeremiah looked on, he saw that the vessel was ruined in the process of working it on the wheels. But it was not cast away as though it had become utterly useless. The potter crushed the clay, softened it again with running water, and refashioned it.

This is a tremendous illustration of what God can do with our marriages that seem to be broken. He can do the same things with husbands individually and wives individually.

There are so many couples that at one point in their life, were totally surrendered and faithful to the Lord. Yet because of circumstances that came their way, or maybe because they just let their guard down and drifted away, they have lost all allegiance to Christ.

I'm so thankful that God doesn't throw the vessel away! He restores us. I'm praying for great restoration of families and homes this weekend.

I'm reminded of the old invitation hymn we sing...

"Have Thine own way, Lord! Have Thine own way!
Thou art the Potter; I am the clay.
Mold me and make me after Thy will,
While I am waiting, yielded and still.

Have Thine own way, Lord! Have Thine own way!
Search me and try me, Master, today!
Whiter than snow, Lord, wash me just now,
As in Thy presence humbly I bow.

Preparing People For The Coming Lord,
Bro. Charles
