From My Heart...

Thanks so much for being a part of our worship service today at Woodland Hills. I pray that this church will be a blessing to all those who attend and to this entire East Texas area.

Thanks also for your patience in the great transition that took place this morning. Our entire Nursery and Preschool area has moved during the week. We've tried every way possible to make every preschool and nursery class first class and appealing to our kids and parents. We will work diligently to tie up any loose ends that may have come up. Thanks for understanding and your patience is appreciated!

Yogi Berra, the former New York Yankee hall of famer player and coach is famous for his one-liners:

"You better cut the pizza in four pieces. I'm not hungry enough to eat eight."
 "I knew exactly where it was, I just couldn't find it."
 "We're lost, but we're making great time!"
 "If you come to a fork in the road, take it."
 "I knew I was going to take the wrong train, so I left early."

But perhaps the most famous of his one-liners is, "It ain't over till it's over."

Some of you came this morning maybe with the idea of almost giving up...you've about had enough. The world has thrown one situation after another and you're weary and worn out. Please let me remind you that the best is yet to come for every child of God! Jesus is alive today, and He's coming back one day for every person who has a personal relationship with Him as Savior and Lord. The most important decision you will make today is what you decide to do with Jesus!

Then it still won't be over!!! We'll praise Him for all eternity! Do you have that hope in your life today?

Preparing People For The Coming Lord,
 Bro. Charles
