From My Heart...

In Eugene Petersen's book, Little House on the Freeway, he makes this observation...

"Among the apostles, the one absolutely stunning success was Judas, and the one thoroughly groveling failure was Peter. Judas was a success in the ways that most impress us: he was successful both financially and politically. He cleverly arranged to control the money of the apostolic band; he skillfully manipulated the political forces of the day to accomplish his goal. And Peter was a failure in ways that we most dread: he was impotent in a crisis and socially inept. At the arrest of Jesus he collapsed, a hapless, blustering coward; in the most critical situations of his life with Jesus, the confession on the road to Caesarea Philippi and the vision on the Mount of transfiguration, he said the most embarrassingly inappropriate things. He was not the companion we would want with us in time of danger, and he was not the kind of person we would feel comfortable with at a social occasion."

Of course today, we've got access to the "rest of the story." Today we know that Judas is the evil one and Peter comes out smelling like roses.

However, even after we know all the details, we're guilty of chasing the successful deeds of Judas. We go after the financial successes, the political power that Judas seemed to possess. And we're quick to judge those who look like a failure.

It's so great in this life that our Lord does not expect us to be successful or never even asks us to be. The Lord does want us to be obedient.

If we're not careful, we'll spend all our time, energy and effort trying to figure out how we can do something for God. In the middle of all that, we're trying to impress God with all we do for Him.

When in reality, He's not asking us to do anything for Him. He's asking us to surrender our all to Him and let Him live and love through us. That, my friend, makes life exciting!

Bro. Charles
