From My Heart...

Welcome to Woodland Hills today. We're so glad you came to worship with us. I'm praying that you will be blessed, that the Holy Spirit would speak to you, and then you would be obedient to what He asks you to do!

In the Southern Baptist Convention, we have added new churches for more than 17 years. So every year, the number of churches rise! Yet at the same time, baptisms have gone down for the same 17 years. More churches...fewer baptisms. This year was the lowest amount of people being saved since the 1940's.

I believe the devil has convinced many of us that people around us do not want to hear about God. I really find that to be untrue. The fact is people are hurting and seeking all around us.

That's what 30 Souls in 30 Days is all about. Today is July 15...which means half of the 30 days is over. To date, we've seen 3 professions of faith. Don't be depressed! I figured it would take us 2 weeks to get in the groove. Times up! We must get busy.

Statistics tell us that somewhere between 8,000 – 10,000 churches will close their doors this year in 2018. How do we keep from becoming one of those statistics.

In 1958, it took 19 Southern Baptists to win one person to the Lord. In 2017, it took 59 Southern Baptists to win one person to the Lord. Staggering statistics. I don't believe that number has grown because of lack of opportunities. The field is white unto harvest even today. I believe the problem is we are not talking about Jesus! We must sow the seeds, maybe cultivate some, maybe water some, maybe even pull a few weeds. We do our part and leave the results to the Holy Spirit. Join me, please...15 days left!!!
