From My Heart...

In Mark 4:26-27, Jesus depicts a farmer sowing seed into his field. When he has sown the seed, he has done all that he can do. He returns home and goes about his business. He goes to bed at night, gets up in the morning and follows the same routine over and over again. He places the seed in the soil and then he leaves it to do what it will.

For the farmer this is a work of faith. He does not return to the field every day to dig up the seed to see if it has germinated. He may water the field. He may remove the weeds. He may keep the soil worked up, but he does not bother the seed. After it has been planted, the farmer has no control over what the seed does. He sows his seed and he leaves the results in the hands of God. The farmer knows that the growth of the seed is God's business. Therefore, he sows it and trusts the Lord to make it grow.

The farmer's task is to sow the seed. When he has done that, he has fulfilled his primary duty.

We have been called to sow seed...not to sow wheat or corn seed into a plowed field, but we have been called to sow the Gospel seed into the hearts of other people. (Matt. 28:19-20; Mark 16:15; Acts 1:8; Rom. 10:13-18)

We have been sent into a lost and dying world to tell others about what Jesus has done for us. You may not be a preacher, a missionary or a Pastor; but if you are saved, you have a testimony. You have been saved by the grace of God and you have a story to tell. People need to hear your story!

When we share the Gospel with another person, we have no control over the results. In fact, the results are not our worry. Our duty is to sow the seed; the results are in the hands of the Lord.

I trust that we will not stop sowing the seed...the gospel. It's more than just a Campaign of 30 Souls in 30 Days. If you aren't sowing the seed as you should be, then I challenge you to make a personal commitment today to get busy doing what the Lord saved you to do.

Preparing People For The Coming Lord,
Bro. Charles
