From My Heart...

An old hymn written by J. V. Easton in the 1800's says this...

The spirit came in childhood, And pleaded, "let me in,"
But oh, the door was bolted, By thoughtlessness and sin;
"I am too young," the child replied, I will not yield today,
There's time enough tomorrow, The spirit went away.

Again he came and pleaded, In youth's bright happy hour,
He called but heard no answer, For lured by Satan's pow'r,
The youth lay dreaming idly then, And saying "not today,
Nor till I've tried earth's pleasures," The spirit went away.

Again he called in mercy, In manhood's vigorous prime,
But still he found no welcome, The merchant had no time,
No time for true repentance, No time to think or pray,
And so repulsed and saddened, The spirit went away.

Once more he called and waited, The man was old and ill,
He scarcely heard the whisper, His heart was cold and still;
"Go, leave me, when I need you, I'll call for thee," he cried,
Then sinking on his pillow, Without a hope, he died.

Because I have called and ye refused,
I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded,
Therefore will I laugh at your calamity
I will mock when your fear cometh.

The call of God is the most important call you will ever hear in your life. It's glorious and gracious, coming from One who loves you so much, He was willing to give His only Son to die for you.

The "Call of God" is a practical call. He's calling us to save us, to keep us from the place of fire called hell.

The "Call of God" is a powerful call. It is coming from One who created the heavens and the earth. The One who spoke life into existence. The One who is powerful enough to raise the dead. He's also powerful enough to sustain our life now.

The "Call of God" is a very personal call...no one can answer it but YOU! Not your family, not your parents, not your friends, not the church, not the denomination...only YOU.

Have you answered that call??? If not, why not today?
