From My Heart...

Listed below are some objectives I believe we all would agree with and even support as to what kind of church we want to be.

- 1. We want to be a friendly church. We want to be a church where everyone who enters our doors is greeted by at least three people (not counting the Pastors and greeters). This means we need to work hard at saying "hi" to people.
- 2. We want to be a congregation that serves rather than sits. We want to see everyone involved in at least one service ministry/project each year. This last year we had mission trips, we overhauled homes, did some outdoor mission activities, ministered to a trailer park, plus a lot more! Our goal is to bring some tangible transformation to the lives of those around us.
- 3. We want to be a spiritually growing congregation. We want to see our congregation involved in Life Groups, Discipleship and Bible Studies. We believe these small groups are essential to the growth of the individual and the church.
- 4. We want to be a church that is consistent and committed to worship attendance. It is hard to be effective when people are inconsistent in worship attendance. We want to have a congregation where people understand the importance of weekly worship. This is important for personal spiritual growth and for corporate spiritual growth.

5. We want to be an obedient church. We can't be obedient unless we are carrying out the Great Commission. (Go into all the world and preach the gospel, making disciples of all men) seriously. We want to see everyone in the congregation look to find at least one un-churched person to invite to worship each year. We want as many as possible to be involved in our regular ongoing outreach ministry of the church.

I hope as you read these objectives you understand these are realistic and reachable objectives. I am excited to pursue these objectives with my church family. I still believe that we as a church family can make an enormous impact on the surrounding communities...if we pray and work together.

Preparing People For The Coming Lord,
Bro. Charles
