From My Heart...

Some churches want to highlight Jesus still being on the cross. We know He died on the cross, but that's not the end there. He rose on the third day and is no longer there but in my heart. Jesus is no longer on the cross, He is no longer in the grave, He is risen and ascended to the Right Hand of the Father and He has poured out His Spirit on the church to carry out His work in the earth. We as the church are the Ecclesia or CALLED OUT ONES from every tribe, kindred, and tongue and brought into the Body of Christ to proclaim the praises of the Lord Jesus!

THE CROSS HAS BEEN APPLIED TO MY LIFE and now because of the cross I am forgiven, washed, cleansed, justified, righteous, worthy, ransomed, rescued, redeemed, saved, healed, and delivered!

We are living in the Resurrection. I have a brand new life. Because Jesus rose, I have risen from death to life. I am born again. But we can't forget about the cross. Because I am not exempt from sin, every day, I need to be forgiven, washed and cleansed of my sins. Every day I need to apply the cross to the way that I respond to life's struggles. Every day, I must pick up my cross and follow Him.

Luke 9:23 Then He said to them all, "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me.

I must keep the cross in the center of my life. When that happens, Jesus is exalted and glorified. What does this mean for me in my life personally?

- It reserves the focus to be on Jesus
- It reminds us of the price paid for our salvation
- It refreshes our appreciation for the expression of God's love for the world
- It reveals to us that as far as the east is from the west, so has He removed our sins from us
- It redirects us into the new life
- It reckons us dead to sin but alive to God
- It renders us justified, righteous and worthy
- It reaches to all people
- It relates us to God and to each other
- It prays not my will, but yours Lord

When the Cross is central, Jesus is exalted. I'm so looking forward to the Life Group Initiative tonight!
