FROM MY HEART...

Stephen Olford, a great theologian, made this statement, "It is my conviction that we are never going to have revival until God has brought the church to the point of desperation." We're about there!

The more people I speak to across the country in our day, the more I am convinced that "Revival Is Our Only Hope!" We need a sovereign working of God where God revives His Name, Testimony and Glory again in the Church. And God will do this through men, especially those that He has called to lead His people.

The great need today is for preachers who are counting the cost and who are leading by example. Preachers that are having daily, personal experiences with God and asking God to break them. Paying lip service to God or men will not do anymore. We are too close to the hour of His return. We need preachers who are as serious about preaching as any professional athlete is about his sport. Could we not argue that we should see ministers more earnest than a professional athlete training to throw a ball in a hoop, or on a football field?

The worry with the masses is radicalism and legalism. Many are scared not only to count "the" cost, they are scared to "count anything" lest they find themselves actually being a "Christian" and upsetting some worldly minded people. We sure don't want to upset people!

Christ is still looking for disciples and men that will bear the cross. This is not a choice that can be revoked it's a commitment that will cost everything. I don't want to presume anything, and I certainly fall far short, but I can tell you I want to be that kind of man of God.

The words of Leonard Ravenhill are to awfully true in our day: 'Easy-going preachers Produce easy-going believers. We have more star preachers than scarred preachers, more expositors than exposers, more who are concerned to "get it over" than to "pray it through." We have more religious educators than soul emancipators. The pulpiteer of our times is expected to enlighten the mind rather than to enliven the conscience. To many, the width of his head matters more than the depth of his heart. So, even with a steel ring of communism around the world, and the sewers of moral filth pouring over it, we find the Church more interested in pie than piety, and the Lord's Weakened army "by schism rent asunder" and by conflicting interpretations oppressed.'

Please pray for me personally that I can be an example and completely surrendered to the call of Christ.

Preparing People For The Coming Lord,
Bro. Charles
