FROM MY HEART...

It was during the dark winter of 1864. At Petersburg, Virginia, the Confederate army of Robert E. Lee faced the Union divisions of General Ulysses S. Grant. The war was now three and a half years old and the glorious charge had long since given way to the muck and mud of trench warfare. Late one evening one of Lee's generals, Major General George Pickett, received word that his wife had given birth to a beautiful baby boy. Up and down the line the Southerners began building huge bonfires in celebration of the event. These fires did not go unnoticed in the Northern camps and soon a nervous Grant sent out a reconnaissance patrol to see what was going on. The scouts returned with the message that Pickett had had a son and these were celebratory fires. It so happened that Grant and Pickett had been contemporaries at West Point and knew one another well, so to honor the occasion Grant, too, ordered that bonfires should be built.

What a peculiar night it was. For miles on both sides of the lines fires burned. No shots fired. No yelling back and forth. No war fought. Only light, celebrating the birth of a child. But it didn't last forever. Soon the fires burned down and once again the darkness took over. The darkness of the night and the darkness of war.

The good news of Christmas is that in the midst of a great darkness there came a light, and the darkness was not able to overcome the light. It was not just a temporary flicker. It was an eternal flame. We need to remember that. There are times, in the events of the world and in the events of our own personal lives, that we feel that the light of the world will be snuffed out. But the Christmas story affirms that whatever happens, the light still shines.

We now are the light of the world that points others around us to the light of salvation thru Jesus Christ! The month of December is one of the greatest times to witness during the entire year. People have Christmas on their mind. Granted, there is a lot of commercialism... BUT also there is a lot of people searching for something in their life to make a difference. The light of Jesus Christ is the difference!

SCRIPTURE OF THE MONTH

*"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."

WHAT CR HAS DONE FOR ME

CR, through God's sovereignty and grace, has allowed me to face the junk in my life that for years had been cluttering up all of my relationships—with my wife, with my children, with my family and friends. Four years ago my life was standing at the edge of a deep cliff with one foot over the side, but through CR I have found the ability to turn around and walk toward God again, and He is healing all of my wounds and relationships. -David
