

From my heart

I trust you have been continuing in sincere praying for a real move of God in our church. Beyond the Hills 2020 is not just raising money to pay off a building, it is fasting and praying to bring spiritual awaking! We can't sit idly by as time moves on until we are in eternal bliss. People are slipping into hell by the moment! Do you feel concern for these people or is your heart passionless, tearless, and without prayer. Do you have tears for the lost? It could be that revival tarries for the simple fact that we do not have tears.

There is so much dry-eyed Christianity. Machinery, methods, models and marketing characterize the present day Church. Never in the history of the Church have we been so sufficient yet lacking so much! By our actions we are saying what God has begun in the Spirit we can perfect in the flesh. We are Laodicean! We are rich, increased with goods, and we have need of nothing. We want to have revival man's way, not God's way. We know nothing of revival, nothing of God's power, nothing of God's travail, nothing of God's sorrow over a lost world.

A Laodicean church is dry-eyed, a Laodicean church never loses sleep, shuns pain, suffering and anything that disturbs its status-quo. The Laodicean church cannot share God's heart, for it is so far removed from God and His economy.

The old timers used language that is unheard of today...such as: Soul-Travail, Mourning, Pleading, Praying-Through, Weeping, Godly Sorrow, Burdens. With dry-eyes we attempt great things for God and then tell Him about it afterwards.

For the most part, we have left God out of Church, though we do at times remind Him of things and ask for the occasional blessing, yet overall God is outside the Church.

By the way, many Christian's today are saying that "God is the same yesterday, and forever," but not today! Could God disturb our status-quo and give us brimming and bursting eyes over the fact of the lostness of men and the fact of their spending a eternity without God.

Please continue to pray and fast with me. Just because our first Fasting and Giving Day is over, it is not reason to cease praying...but rather we need to pray more. Beyond the Hills 2020 has been set aside to draw us closer to God. If we as a church would draw near to God, I believe with all my heart others would follow. I'm praying for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit of God to fall fresh on this church!

Bro Charles Hunt

February's Scripture

Love not the world, neither the things [that are] in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.
