

From my heart

It was in Chicago one day, a little boy trudging along on a cold wintry day and the little boy turned into a service station and in that day they had open gas stoves. And the stove was there and the little boy went over and was warming his feet. He had on an old pair of ragged tennis shoes, holes in them, and he was warming himself and the man at the station said, son where you going today? He said, mister, its Sunday I am going to church.

The man said, oh, that is good son. Where do you go? And the boy named a church and said mister; I go to the Moody church. And the man said, the Moody church? Well son where do you live? And the boy gave him his address and the man said, son I don't understand why especially on a day like this, cold, and awful outside why would you pass several churches to go to the Moody church?

And the little boy looked up and said, because mister, they love little boys like me at the Moody church!

I pray that could be said all over Longview and East Texas about Woodland Hills! If we could love like that, this building would be packed with people because what the world is looking for is the unconditional love and acceptance that Jesus gives.

Luke 6:38

Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again."

I want to let it be clearly understood that I don't preach on stewardship every Sunday. But I do believe that stewardship is as much a part of God's Word as prayer, salvation, discipleship, faith, love and all these things that we preach. Therefore, without apology, we're praying, fasting, seeking the will of God to pay off this new building before the first note comes due in July. So if you're visiting today, we don't do this every Sunday, but please pardon our excitement! We've seen God do some marvelous and miraculous things in the past, and we're looking for God to do even more in the future!

February's Scripture

Love not the world, neither the things [that are] in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.
