

From my heart

In a monastery in Germany there was a young man who lived in mortal fear of having to conduct the chapel services. He approached the Headmaster of the monastery and said, "Sir, I am willing to do any menial job that I am assigned. I am willing to wax the floors, scour the pots and pans, polish the silver, or weed the garden, but please never ask me to conduct chapel and preach the sermon. I just can't handle that!"

The Headmaster knew that was what the student needed and assigned that task to him for the next day. As he stood before his peers the young man said, "Brothers, do you know what I am going to say?" They shook their heads in the negative. He said, "Neither do I, let's all stand and have the benediction."

The Headmaster was infuriated. He told him that he was going to do the chapel service the next day. The next day the young man stood up and said, "Brothers, do you know what I am going to say?" They shook their head in the affirmative. He said, "Since you already know what I am going to say there is no point in my saying it. Let's all stand and have the benediction."

The Headmaster was infuriated even more. He said, "If you pull that caper tomorrow, I will put you in solitary confinement, and feed you only bread and water."

The next day the young man said, "Brothers do you know what I am going to say?" Some of them shook their head in the affirmative and some of them nodded in the negative. He said, "Good, let those who know tell those who don't. Let's all stand and have the benediction."

Evangelism is those who know telling those who don't know. Evangelism is one beggar telling another beggar where to find bread.

If I were to give you a choice between doing something you really liked or doing evangelism, which would you choose? The main focus of the New Testament Church is evangelism...telling others about Jesus! In the midst of the Corona virus, many are wanting to know! Let's tell them this summer...
