

From my heart

One of the saddest verses in the Bible is Jeremiah 8:20..."The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved."

We never need to assume that everyone we know is saved, in fact it should be the opposite. We should assume everyone is lost until we find out that they are saved.

During a Texas revival meeting led by Mordecai Ham, a man in the congregation was overcome by the love and mercy of God. He had killed four men and never dreamed God could care for him. This man was so touched by the gospel that he stood up during that revival in 1910 and shouted, "Saved! Saved! Saved!"

Jack Scofield, the musician for the revival, was so moved by the joyful outburst that he used those words to write the popular hymn the next afternoon. The inspiration for this widely sung hymn came from the enthusiastic gratitude of a four-time murderer who found the grace of God.

I've found a friend, who is all to me.

His love is ever true.

I love to tell how He lifted me,

And what His grace can do for you,

He saves me from every sin and harm,

Secures my soul each day

I'm leaning strong on His mighty arm,

I know He'll guide me all the way.

When poor and needy and all alone,

In love He said to me

Come unto Me and I'll lead you on

To live with me eternally.

CHORUS

Saved by His power divine! Saved to new life sublime!

Life now is sweet and my joy is complete.

For I'm saved, saved, saved!!!

If you're saved, tell somebody about it! Hallelujah, what a Savior!
