

From my heart

There are two very different gospels proclaimed in the world today. One seems to be gaining a wider audience and is often more readily welcomed. It is no wonder, for it is the good news that Jesus has come to solve all your difficulties and heal all your afflictions. It encourages you to dream big dreams and know that you have a great destiny to fulfill. A bigger house and a better car are just waiting for those who will believe. This gospel says if you will believe, all things are possible for you. Just visualize it and it will come to pass. Verses from Scripture are quoted that seem to back up these statements. (Mark 9:23) The love and blessing of our heavenly Father is emphasized. What can possibly be wrong with that? How could anyone deny that God wants the best for you?

While never quite saying God is there to serve you, that is certainly the idea for His existence. I guess it depends on our understanding of what is best for us. Nothing is really said about denying self to take up the cross. (Luke 9:23) Trusting, believing, worshipping, are all mentioned, but not dying to self to serve Him. (Galatians 2:20)

The real Gospel is the one proclaimed by Jesus and the Apostles. That is the one that teaches that salvation is more than saying the magic words, "Jesus come into my heart." (Matthew 10:32-33 James 2:14) The Biblical Gospel teaches the Lordship of Jesus Christ. (Romans 10:9) It begins with the death of the old selfish ways and teaches us to be a slave of righteousness. (Romans 6:18) Jesus declared that if you try and save your life, you will lose it. (Matthew 16:25)

The call to follow Jesus is a call to turn our hearts and minds away from this world and to fix them on Jesus. (Colossians 3:1-2) If an affliction helps us do that then do you really want to be freed from it? The psalmist said it was good that he was afflicted so that he could learn God's statutes. (Psalm 119:71) The other gospel says that no affliction is God's will. I wonder then why Jesus walked by all those sick folks at the pool of Bethesda to heal that one man. (John 5:3-6) I wonder why He told Paul his thorn in the flesh caused him to rely on the power of God?

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Psalm 46:1

MEALS AND DELIVERY

At the present time, meals will continue to be prepared and delivered on Tuesdays and Thursdays. We do need help on these days. We're trying to make some different teams and take turns cooking and delivering. If you're interested, please see one of the staff or call the Church Office.

LIVE AT 11

We will begin this week with Live at 11 on Mondays and on Thursdays. Thanks for listening online.

COTS NEEDED

If you have an extra portable cot around your house that you don't need, we could use some at the church. Hurricane season has started and already storms are in the gulf. Our upstairs rooms at the Loop Campus was built to help people in need. We have showers and available space, but we do need cots. We also have showers here at Mason Creek and people can stay here in an emergency.
