From My Heart...

Thanks for being here to study and worship with us today. I pray that you have been blessed and you'll leave here saying "It's been good to be in the House of the Lord!"

It's so easy to hear and speak about how we love Jesus and how He is our example. We're even fond of the term "Christian" which in essence means a "little Christ," leading people to believe that Christ is our example.

I wonder if we've ever really considered what it really means. If Christ really was who we patterned our life after...If we really understood that concept, it would totally change and revolutionize our life. Some of those aspects of comparison would be...

- The Bible. Jesus knew the Scriptures and quoted them often. Do we? Do we study...memorize...meditate?
- Prayer. Do we begin to pray as He prayed. How about this, do we even desire to pray like He prayed?
- Thoughtfulness. Jesus was always thoughtful to others. Never putting Himself first. Are we?
- Patience. Jesus was the model of patience...never in too big of hurry to help somebody. How patient are we?
- Tribulation. Even in the midst of the lies and mocking and the crucifixion, Jesus was quiet. When things happen in our life, are we quiet?
- Service. What did it mean for Jesus to take a bowl of water and a towel and wash the disciples feet like He was a slave? Are we willing to serve God in that fashion? Can anyone say of us that "we went about doing good?"

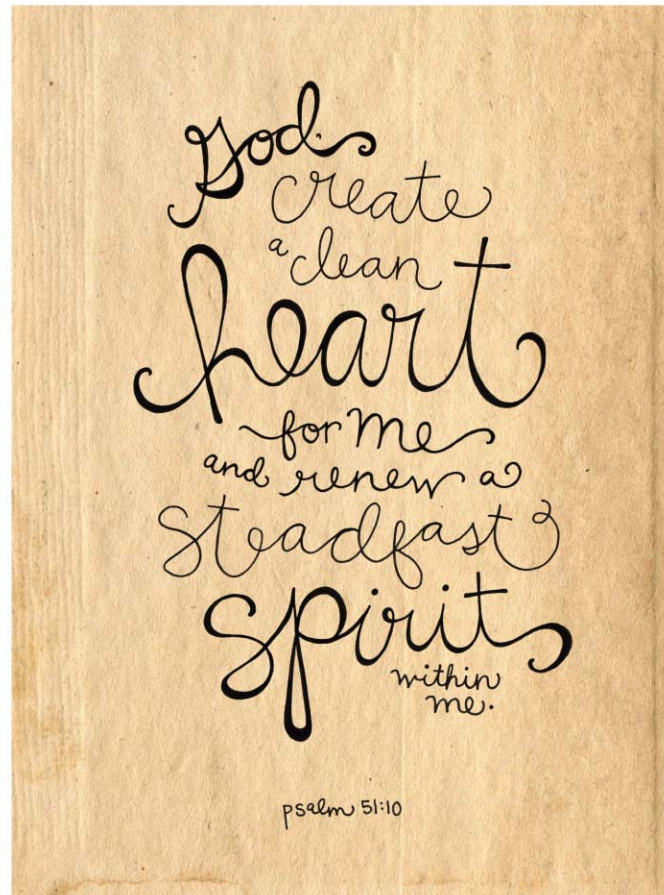

Jesus said, "I've given you an example." I pray that we will be a people and a church that truly seeks to follow after Jesus. We want to be a disciple of Christ. The first words He told the men He chose was...follow me!
