From My Heart...

You are a blessing and an honor by being in the services today with us. You've blessed us by being here with us, and you've honored God by worshipping on the Lord's day. I hope God has blessed you greatly!

If I asked the question, "Where's Waldo?" you might recall those popular children's picture books from the 1980s. Or at least some of us older folks would! That little guy in the red-and-white-striped shirt and hat loved to hide in the pages amid a busy blur of images that made it nearly impossible to find him.

I am so thankful that finding Jesus is a lot easier than finding Waldo. In fact, Jesus doesn't have to find you...He knows exactly where you are. Jesus doesn't play hide-and-seek. He says, "Behold, I stand at the door and knock" (Rev. 3:20). You can find Him at the door of your heart—the core of your existence—waiting to come in. He doesn't just want to meet you at church, or to be kept at bay on the outer edges of your life. He longs to be in the center of your dreams, deliberations, and desires. He wants a real relationship with the real you.

And as wonderful as that is, I need to warn you up front, it may be a little unsettling. Your heart is no doubt harboring a few things that He will want to deal with. But there is nothing that is more valuable than intimacy with Him. There are many things in our lives we need to deal with. Many may have already dealt with them by bringing them to altar. The problem is many times we pick them back up when we leave the altar. We need to rise up and walk in "newness of life."

Welcome Jesus in and He will clear out the clutter until the air is fragrant and fresh with the purity, power, and pleasure of His presence.

Please join me in "cleaning up our lives!" Then let's focus on helping others by being a part of 1+1+1! It begins next Sunday, March 10. For eight weeks we will be praying for one person, one time a day, at 1:00 PM. It comes to a great finish on Easter Sunday. I'm looking forward to what God is going to do!!!

Scripture of the Month

"Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."
1 Corinthians 15:58

Information Sheets

There are tables set up in the Fellowship Hall for everyone to fill out information about yourself and families. We are trying to get a new database for Mason Creek. This is vitally important to our communication and building a church. We do not sell or give out information.
