From My Heart...

Thanks for being with us today as we worship in truth and in Spirit. We are really glad you came!

WHO NEEDS ENCOURAGEMENT? ISAIAH 35:3-4

Truett Cathy (founder of Chic-fil-A) once said, "How do you identify someone who needs encouragement? Answer: That person is breathing." Everyone needs encouragement, so what's the best way to give it? Here are a few suggestions from Steve May...

- Remember that you can't give encouragement when you're talking about yourself. Sometimes we try to give others perspective on their problems by telling them how bad ours are. It doesn't help.
- Tell them what they're doing right. They already know what they're doing wrong. Tell them what they do well. Tell them something good about themselves. Don't worry, they won't get big-headed about it.
- Tell them what the future can be. Remind them of what God can do, how he can transform any situation for his glory, how he can transform any person into the image of Christ, how he can use anyone to accomplish his purpose.
- Tell them how it's worked before. Tell them how a friend overcame a similar problem. Or how a business leader dealt with the same adversity. Or how another Christian's perseverance ultimately paid off. Give them hope.
- Tell them you will help them refine their strategy. You can't solve their problems for them. You can't take the actions they need to take. But, when they ask, you can gently, in love, point out what should be done differently, and what should be done next.

Remember the words of Isaiah: Encourage the exhausted, and strengthen the feeble. Say to those with an anxious heart, "Take courage, fear not. Behold your God will come with vengeance; the recompense of God will come, but he will save you." (Isaiah 35:3-4)

People all around us need encouragement. That is one of the primary ministries we can all participate in.

Scripture of the Month

"Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

1 Corinthians 15:58

For Your Information

Information Sheets

There are tables set up in the Fellowship Hall for everyone to fill out information about yourself and families. We are trying to get a new database for Mason Creek. This is vitally important to our communication and building a church. We do not sell or give out information.

Women's Ministry Craft Day

Saturday, March 23 from 9:00am to 11:00am at Mason Creek location. Please bring 1 yard of fabric and an embellishment. (see photo) The church will provide the wood.

Childcare Available.

Visit whbchurch.com for more information. and to register by March 20.
