From My Heart...

In May 1995, Randy Reid, a 34-year-old construction worker, was welding on top of a nearly completed water tower outside Chicago. According to writer Melissa Ramsdell, Reid unhooked his safety gear to reach for some pipes when a metal cage slipped and bumped the scaffolding he stood on. The scaffolding tipped, and Reid lost his balance. He fell 110 feet, landing face down on a pile of dirt, just missing rocks and construction debris. A fellow worker called 911. When paramedics arrived, they found Reid conscious, moving, and complaining of a sore back. Apparently, the fall didn't cost Reid his sense of humor. As paramedics carried him on a backboard to the ambulance, Reid had one request: "Don't drop me." (Doctors later said Reid came away from the accident with just a bruised lung.)

We have trusted many people and many things: We often trust our families; we have trusted our friends; we have trusted our transportation services; we have trusted our national security services; we have trusted our military services. The one thing all these have in common is sometimes they fail.

We have witnessed the devastating results of national failures. Security was breached, planes were hijacked and used like missiles, lives were lost in the thousands, our nation is shaken and stunned, insecurity rises and fear grows. In times like these, who do you trust?

God is worthy of trust! "The LORD is a refuge for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble. Those who know your name will trust in you, for you, LORD, have never forsaken those who seek you." Psalm 9:9-10. God is our source of strength. When we feel weak, God is our strength. When we are pressured by life, God is our relief. When we need security, God is our refuge. The full resources of God are at our disposal when we place our trust in Him.

The key is trust. If you do not place your trust in God, there is no access to His power, His mercy or His love. When trials arise and we go through difficulty; it is then that we must place our trust in God. Without trust in God there is no comfort, no peace, no strength and no relief.

Scripture of the Month

"Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

1 Corinthians 15:58

For Your Information

Construction Update

Everything is continuing on schedule to be completed by Easter. Thanks for your cooperation during this transition time.

New Administrative Assistant

Starting tomorrow, April 1, Alison Logan will begin working as our Administrative Assistant at Mason Creek. She will have the office open 5 days a week in the mornings. She will be the "hub" for everything...prayer requests, bulletin announcements, calendaring activities, website, database plus anything else! Together we grow at Mason Creek!

Bro. Kase Preaching Today

I am EXTREMELY excited about our time together this morning! We will continue with 'The People of Easter' as Peter shares his failure but also his redemption! Since this is the 5th Sunday of the month this will be a family service with our children in the service. It's going to be a great day to worship together!
