Sermon Notes

The Ironies of the Cross: Matthew 27:27-40

THE MAN WHO IS MOCKED AS _____ IS THE _____
(MATT. 27:27-31)

"Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the governor's headquarters, and they gathered the whole battalion before him. And they stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him, and twisting together a crown of thorns, they put it on his head and put a reed in his right hand. And kneeling before him, they mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" And they spit on him and took the reed and struck him on the head. And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the robe and put his own clothes on him and led him away to crucify him." (Matthew 27:27-31)

In what ways is Jesus the _____ of your life?

Many prefer a Monarch to a _____! We want Queen Elizabeth III!

As a proclaimed head of nation, the ruling monarch is said to exist as a symbolic figure-head that "gives a sense of stability" to the country. According to the Royal Website she "no longer has a political or executive role."

What in your life would change if Jesus was truly your King?

THE MAN WHO IS UTTERLY _____ IS _____
(MATT. 27:32-40)

"As they went out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name. They compelled this man to carry his cross. And when they came to a place called Golgotha (which means Place of a Skull), they offered him wine to drink, mixed with gall, but when he tasted it, he would not drink it. And when they had crucified him, they divided his garments among them by casting lots. Then they sat down and kept watch over him there. And over his head they put the charge against him, which read, "This is Jesus, the King of the Jews." Then two robbers were crucified with him, one on the right and one on the left. And those who passed by derided him, wagging their heads and saying, "You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross." (Matthew 27:32-40)

It is in Jesus' death, and in his resurrection three days later, that Jesus meets our needs and reconciles us to God, becoming the temple, the supreme meeting place between God and sinners.

The only way Jesus will save his people, is by hanging on that wretched cross, in utter _____.

The world never expected a King who would set aside his power to save his people; but such is the LOVE of God for you.

Take a moment and pray thanking Jesus for what he did for you on the cross.

With the example of Christ, what does it look like for you to 'carry your cross?'

How can you forfeit your pride and live intentionally for the Kingdom?

Bro. Kase Kuykendall

Scripture of the Month

"No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon."

Matthew 6:24
