From my heart...

Every believer has the God-given responsibility to share the gospel with others. We may not all be evangelists, but Christ has given us a story to tell. Rusty Stevens, a director for the Navigators, shares his story.

"As I feverishly pushed the lawn mower around our yard, I wondered if I'd finish before dinner. Mikey, our 6-year-old, walked up and, without even asking, stepped in front of me and placed his hands on the mower handle. Knowing that he wanted to help me, I quit pushing. The mower quickly slowed to a stop. Chuckling inwardly at his struggles, I resisted the urge to say, "Get out of here, kid. You're in my way." and said instead, "Here, Son. I'll help you." As I resumed pushing, I bowed my head back and leaned forward, and walked spread-legged to avoid colliding with Mikey. The grass cutting continued, but more slowly, and less efficiently than before, because Mikey was "helping" me.

Suddenly, tears came to my eyes as it hit me: "This is the way my heavenly Father allows me to help him build his kingdom!" I pictured my heavenly Father at work seeking, saving, and transforming the lost, and there I was, with my weak hands "helping." My Father could do the work by himself, but he doesn't. He chooses to stoop gracefully to allow me to co-labor with him. Why? For my sake, because he wants me to have the privilege of ministering with him."

School begins this week all around us! Revival services are only a month away. The opportunities are here! God is waiting to help...What are you waiting for? There are so many things that need someone to say...I'll do it for the glory of God. When we all do what we can, the church moves forward in a tremendous and glorious way!

What are you waiting for?

Scripture of the Month

Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad:
for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

Matthew 5:12

THANK YOU

Fifteen of the best years of our lives have just come to a close and we're ready to begin another 15! Your thoughtfulness, giving, reception, but most of all your kind words and prayers have blessed us beyond measure. We cannot wait to see what God will do next at Woodland Hills. Thanks again for everything!
